

WORKSHEET 4

CHAPTER 4 – Conflict Resolution

My Big Book of Values 10

Answer the following questions.

A. Complete the following sentences based on your reading of the Act It Out section.

1. The father tries to suppress the younger son's aspirations.
2. The mother is more _____
3. By studying medicine, the elder son _____
4. The younger son is not _____
5. The elder son tries to make his parents _____
6. The father is of the opinion that _____
7. The elder brother points out that _____
8. The mother compares _____

B. Answer the following questions about Khala, Alagu and Jumman by choosing the correct option.

1. A conflict developed between Jumman and Alagu because
 - a. Jumman perceived Alagu's impartial verdict as a betrayal of their friendship.
 - b. Jumman thought Alagu was deliberately taking sides with his aunt.
 - c. Both of the above.
2. Khala chose Alagu as the sarpanch because
 - a. she wanted to stir Alagu's conscience to distinguish between right and wrong.
 - b. she believed that a panch was above both friendship and enmity.
 - c. Both of the above.
3. Jumman welcomed the people to the panchayat because
 - a. he wished to influence them into giving a favourable response.
 - b. he was confident of having the verdict in his favour.
 - c. Both of the above.

Name:
Class: X

Teacher's signature:
Date:

4. Alagu was uneasy at being appointed sarpanch because
- a. he was Jumman's friend, and so could not be expected give an impartial verdict.
 - b. he feared that it would destroy his friendship with Jumman.
 - c. Both of the above.
5. When Jumman was appointed sarpanch by Samjhu
- a. he rejoiced at the opportunity of having his revenge on Alagu.
 - b. he became aware of being the arbiter of truth and justice.
 - c. Both of the above.
6. Jumman embraced Alagu and wept because
- a. he finally realised that the voice of conscience was above considerations of enmity and friendship.
 - b. he repented regarding Alagu as his bitterest enemy.
 - c. Both of the above.

C. What according to you can be the purpose of a project like 'The 1947 Partition Archive'? How can it help to resolve future conflicts?

D. Fill in the blanks with words from the box.

sorrow trust kind grave
 trusting death pitied

1. The poet's heart was heavy because his _____ had been abused.
2. The poet's heart was _____ and _____ before it was betrayed.
3. By 'one sad level', the poet means _____
4. The place 'Whither all footsteps tend, whence none depart' is the _____
5. The poet _____ fellow human beings because they did not realise that they all were headed towards a common grave.
6. The poet forgave those who did him wrong when he realised that _____ was common to all.

E. Answer the following questions briefly.

1. What are the two kinds of conflict that have existed in Nagaland?

2. How was peace brought about between the Indian state and the Naga groups?

3. What would come in the way of Nagaland's economic development?

4. Why has the establishment of the peace process in Kashmir been complicated?

5. Nadeem Pirzada suggests one solution for the diverse problems of Kashmir. What is it?

6. What according to Nadeem Pirzada makes democracy so precious?

F. Given below are some beliefs and ideas. State whom the ideas and beliefs belong to. Refer to the Expert Speak section.

1. The main source of conflict lies in hatred, attachment and ignorance.

2. A mind in conflict is a destructive and wasteful mind.

3. Revenge and retribution for past cruelties cannot create a peaceful environment.

4. Resolution to a conflict can only come if the underlying cause is understood.

5. We focus on the few points of difference while ignoring the many points of similarity that bind all humans together.

6. Constant pursuit of pleasure and unhealthy competition are also manifestations of violence.

G. In the table given below, list any five reasons for conflicts and any five means of resolving conflicts.

Reasons for conflict	Means of resolving conflict
Cultural differences
	Self-reflection