

WORKSHEET 5

CHAPTER 5 – One World, One Value

My Big Book of Values 10

Answer the following questions.

A. Answer the following questions by choosing the correct options.

1. How is the slave different from his master, the blind man?
 - a. He believes in the sun.
 - b. He does not believe or disbelieve in the sun – for him it is the source of light that is important.
 - c. He believes in the night light more than the sun.
 - d. Anything that helps him serve his master is the sun.
2. The fisherman considers the lame man ignorant because
 - a. being lame, he has not travelled beyond his island and so does not know the true nature of the sun.
 - b. he is lame and therefore can't be knowledgeable.
 - c. he has never fished in the oceans before.
 - d. All of the above.
3. According to the pilot, people might understand the true nature of the sun if only they
 - a. stop defining it from their own experience.
 - b. look at the heavens above rather than the ground beneath their feet.
 - c. cease to argue and shout at one another.
 - d. had voyaged all around the world as he had.
4. Which of the options is not correct about the Chinaman's conclusion of the story?
 - a. It is pride in their beliefs that causes discord among men.
 - b. God is for everyone, in whichever form people wish to worship him.
 - c. God's creation is his biggest temple of worship.
 - d. To understand God, one has to understand the metaphor of the sun.

Name:

Teacher's signature:

Class: X

Date:

B. From each set of sentences, tick (✓) the sentence which is correct.

- 1. a. Tropical rainforests help to stabilize the Earth's climate by absorbing atmospheric carbon dioxide.
- b. Tropical rainforests help to stabilize the Earth's climate by releasing carbon dioxide into the atmosphere.
- 2. a. Leaders from different religions came together to form the Interfaith Rainforest Initiative.
- b. Leaders from different religions and indigenous communities came together to form the Interfaith Rainforest Initiative.
- 3. a. The IRI launched the Faiths for Forests campaign in 2019.
- b. The UN Climate Action Summit launched the Faiths for Forests campaign in 2019.
- 4. a. IRI has tapped into the power of religion to influence positive environmental change.
- b. IRI has tapped into the power of religious leaders to influence positive environmental change.

C. Can we say that our conscience is the 'fountainhead of values'? Justify your answer, preferably by citing an example.

D. Tick (✓) the sentences that state the message of the poem 'Just One'.

- 1. Small and simple things have the power to change the world for the better.
- 2. We should make our lives exemplary because one life can make a difference.
- 3. We should vote wisely as one vote can change a nation.
- 4. Small steps go a long way towards achieving big transformations.
- 5. It is really up to us to bring about a change for the better in the world.

6. With our smiles and laughter, we should conquer all misfortunes in life.

7. By planting a tree each, we can solve the problem of deforestation.

8. We should keep hope alive against all odds.

E. Answer the following questions briefly.

1. According to Prof P Jha, what could make people belonging to different religions more tolerant of each other?

2. What do you understand by the term 'value-based life'? How can it help us to be more tolerant individuals?

3. How can media such as the Internet, films and television bring about homogenization of values?

4. Explain what is meant by the Golden Rule?

F. Given below is a passage from the lesson. Based on your understanding of what it says, fill in the blanks with appropriate words from the box.

futile cruelly God applicable metaphor various equally dividing viewpoints religion egotism _____ today is one of the most prominent _____ factors in our world. Different religions, different sects within the same religion, and sometimes, different schools within the same sect, act _____ against each other. The story The Coffee-House of Surat, therefore, is even more _____ today than it was in the 19th century when it was written. Using the _____ of the sun, the author shows us that religious differences are just a matter of _____ and a result of _____. The rituals and stories of each religion are just _____ ways of looking at the same _____ who loves everyone _____. Isn't fighting to prove your belief's superiority then just _____?