Icebreaker: Banyan tree

In-text Questions (Page 54)

The talking tree is called the Baobab tree.

In-text Questions (Page 55)

The Baobab tree did not like it when the Gods made more trees that bore fruits and had colourful flowers and shiny leaves.

I am a learner

- A. 1. b. 2. b. 3. b. 4. b. 5. c.
- B. 1. a. The Baobab Tree said it to the gods.
b. The tree said so because it was never happy. It had a habit of complaining about everything.
c. At first the gods listened to the tree's complaints. But soon they grew tired of them.
2. a. One of the gods said it to the Baobab Tree.
b. The Baobab Tree was complaining a lot. The gods had grown tired and irritated by its non-stop complaining.
c. The gods became angry with the Baobab Tree. They punished it.
- C. 1. The gods sent the Sun to warm the Baobab Tree's leaves. They sent rain to water it so that the tree could grow. They made the soil wet so that the tree's roots could spread. They also listened to the Baobab Tree's complaints and provided what it wanted.
2. Accept all relevant response.
Sample response: The Baobab Tree complained all the time because it was never happy with what it had. It was also jealous of the other trees. It made the Baobab Tree unhappier.
3. The gods had made the Baobab Tree such that it was able to speak. This unique quality of their own creation made the gods overcome with joy.
- D. 1. The gods were very angry with the Baobab Tree's constant complaining and rudeness. They grabbed it, turned it upside down and stuffed its head in the ground. They did so until its mouth was underground and soil filled inside its mouth. This completely stopped the Baobab Tree from speaking and complaining.
