Sample responses:

Radhika's first day at school was good. Her class teacher greeted her. Everyone welcomed Sarah. Sam introduced her to everyone. Sam also showed her around the school during lunch break.

Soon, other classmates joined them. They asked Sarah about her old school. They had lunch in the lawn. Sarah and her classmates shared their lunch with her. She also shared her lunch with them. Before going home, Sarah thanked Sam for helping her out.

2. Sarah was from Seoul and new to India. She was also new to the school. She missed her old school and friends. She did not have any friends yet at her new school. When Sarah told this to Ms Molly, she said, "Don't worry, you will soon make many friends." She also told Sarah that Sam would introduce her to everyone. Ms Molly knew that Sam, Sarah and their classmates would bond over many common things. She was right. By the end of the first day at school, Sarah made many friends.

Sample responses:

- Yes, I think both Sam and Sarah needed a friend. Sam's best friend, Nancy, shifted to another city. She did not have anyone to talk to. Sarah also needed a friend because she was new to India. She left her old school and friends. She was a new student in her class. She did not know anybody. She had no friends there.
- No, I have not moved to a new place. I think it would be both exciting and difficult to move to a new place. I would leave my old friends. I would have to learn new routes and meet new people. I would make new friends. I would be able to learn new things.
